Biography

Rowan Pendragon is a blogger, author, Witch, Priestess, teacher, paranormal investigator, and professional tarot consultant who has been living and practicing as a Pagan Witch for over 25 years. Rowan first discovered the tarot at the age of 8 and over the next four years discovered the Pagan path and began studying Wicca. At 13 she made her first dedication to the path of the Witch and has worked to grow her magickal and spiritual skills and knowledge ever since. Currently Rowan writes a blog called One Witch's Way, which combines elements of teaching and education as well as personal reflections and insights from her perspective and practice.

Rowan's work, especially her writing, has stood out because of her wit, humor, and uncompromising look at the reality of Paganism and its modern day applications. Rather than holding on to antiquated ideas of what spirituality and Paganism are, Rowan dares to test the waters with new theories and practices, finding new avenues for reaching a sense of connection and enlightenment. In December 2010 Rowan released her book "One Witch's Way 2011 Companion" (ISBN 978-1-257-09081-5), a collection of articles and resources for practitioners to use during the year to enhance their work. After the success of this guide Rowan released another edition, "One Witch's Way Datebook 2012" (ISBN 978-1-469-92792-3) the following year. In this edition she refined the material she was presenting and expanded on the resources and information in order to create what could almost be seen as a mini Book of Shadows.

In September 2011 Rowan released her first tarot book, "Within The Cards" (ISBN 978-1-466-31074-2). This book was born out of Rowan's 8 week tarot reader intensive class that she had been teaching and details a process for learning to read the tarot from a psychic and intuitive approach while combining those skills with traditional analysis of symbols, colors, and the traditional archetypal meanings. "Within The Cards" also featured exercises for practical use in each chapter of the book, chapters on creating spreads, tarot spells, tips for going pro, and a large section of resources and correspondences for working with the cards.

Rowan has studied different magickal and spiritual traditions and has studied with some of the best teachers in the Pagan community. She received a Progressive Magic Certification from Janet Farrar and Gavin Bone, is a Certified Paranormal Investigator (CPI) from ParaNexus Academy, is an honored Second Degree member of The Temple of Witchcraft with Christopher Penczak, earned an Angel Communication Master certification from Rev. Nina Roe of AngelsTeach.com, and her tarot consultant certification from John Gaydon through Flamel College. Rowan also has received several energy alignments and certifications from Joanne Mullane of Earth and Sky Spirit Reiki and studied the core course of the Ash, Birch, and Willow tradition with Raven Grimassi and Stephanie Taylor.

In April of 2012 Rowan became a Second Degree Cabot Witch in the Cabot Tradition of Witchcraft while studying with Laurie Cabot in Salem, MA.

Rowan is also a member of the American Tarot Association, The Tarot Guild, and a Registered Metaphysical Practitioner with the World Metaphysical Association. Rowan is currently studying the Crystal Healer Certification Level 1 at Hibiscus Moon Crystal Academy, is a continuing student with The Temple of Witchcraft, and is working toward a Ph.D. in metaphysical counseling with the University of Sedona. Rowan will begin Third Degree studies in the Cabot Tradition of Witchcraft in August 2012.

In early 2011 Rowan was asked to appear as a guest on an online streaming radio show called After Hours Radio. After her first appearance the host of the show, Roger Mericka, asked Rowan to appear as a co-host and guest on a weekly basis. Rowan was an extremely popular guest on the show; the station listener numbers during her show began to reach numbers of over 600,000 listeners world wide. However, after about three months of weekly shows, Rowan and Mr. Mericka came to a number of creative and ideological differences and Rowan decided to leave the show.

After leaving the After Hours Radio program, Rowan began her own podcast called Shadow Walking. The show only had one episode, which was extremely popular and gained a lot of attention. Most specifically it gained the attention of Devin Hunter, host and creator of the popular show The Modern Witch Podcast. In August of 2011 Rowan and Devin began to work on plans to add Rowan as a co-host to the Modern Witch. They did several shows together between August and October 2011 to prepare for the launch of a whole new show on October 18, 2012. On that date Rowan and Devin launched a live call-in weekly version of the previously pre-recorded monthly show on BlogTalkRadio. After a number of technical issues and frustrations they moved the show off BlogTalk in January 2012 and began to air a weekly pre-recorded version of The Modern Witch Podcast on the Pagan Radio Network. The show is quite popular among Witches and Pagans and has gained a strong following and fan base.

Rowan plans to continue to write and produce material that will allow her to share her discoveries and knowledge with those who seek it. Currently she is planning several short e-books which will cover topics such as mojo bags and abundant living. She is also planning to begin compiling a Book of Shadows for release in the near future with two major book projects in the planning stages. Rowan is also working on plans for a tarot deck as well as a lenormand oracle deck. In May of 2012 Rowan did a full relaunch of her website, www.rowanpendragon.com, which allowed her to branch out with the work she was offering in order to include regular e-books, e-courses, meditation MP3s and videos for her visitors and fans to enjoy.
